hands,
Efface the footprints in the sands,
And the tide rises, the tide falls.

Bobby Jones

You can't be common because the common man goes nowhere. You have to be uncommon.

— Herb Brooks

Steve Allsteadt

I don't know where I'm going,
I don't know what I need,
But I get to where I'm gonna end up, and that's all right by me.

— Pete Townshend

Eric Jozlin

Great spirits have always encountered violent opposition from mediocre minds.

— Albert Einstein

Jerome Chuchman

Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

— My father

Bob Fenbert

The best of men cannot suspend their fate: the good die early,
and the bad die late.

— Daniel Defoe —

Patrick Donovan

May I in my belief brief bolt across the scene not be misunderstood in what I mean.

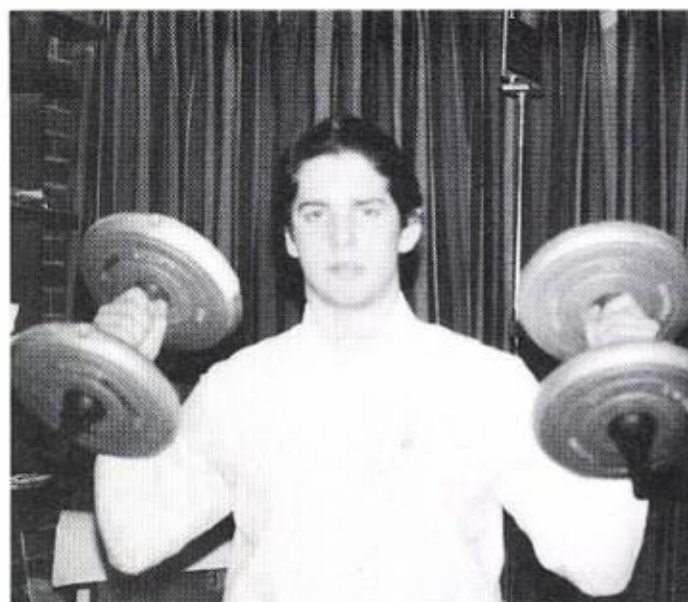

Ed Harwell

If men no longer know what they are looking at, there may well be unicorns in the world yet, unknown and glad of it.

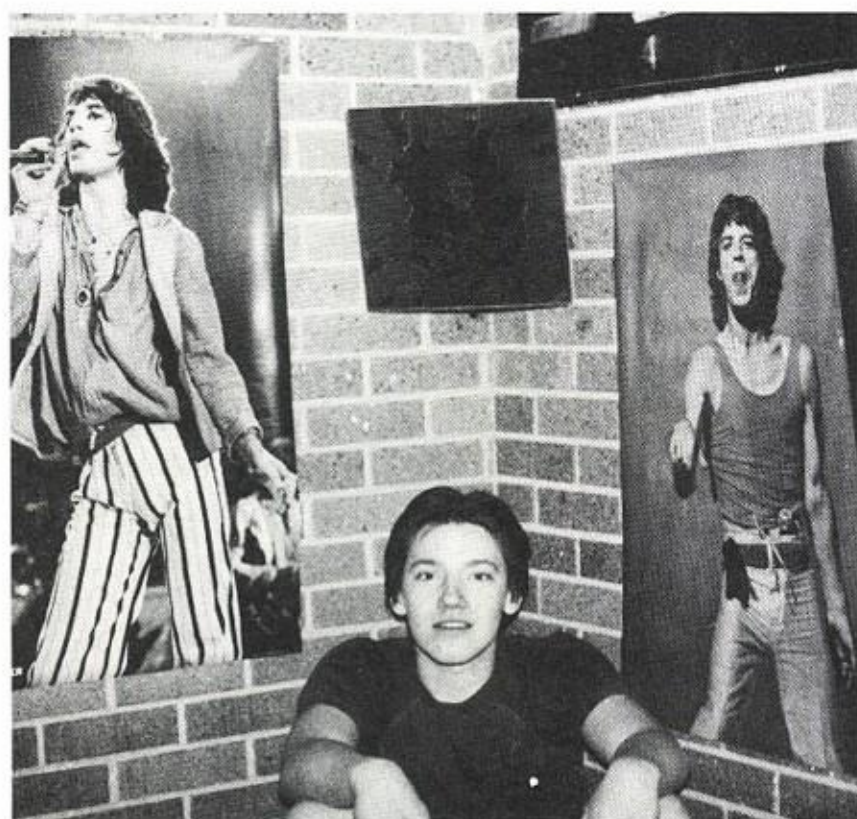

Dave Strenkoski

within me lies the power to seize the hour and live my dreams.

Richard Sikora

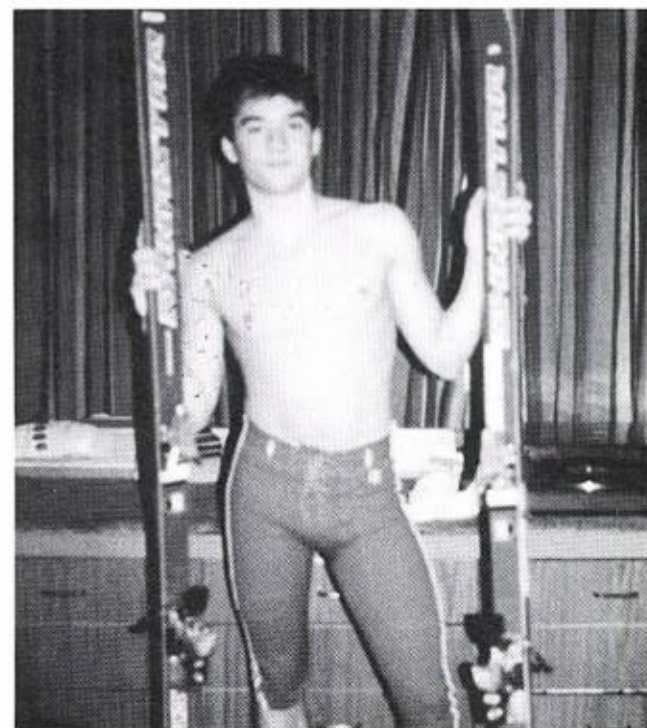

Everytime you don't do it, brings you one time closer to never doing it at all.

Jack Salbut

Stay young by hanging on to your dreams. There is not much to do but bury a man when he is dead.

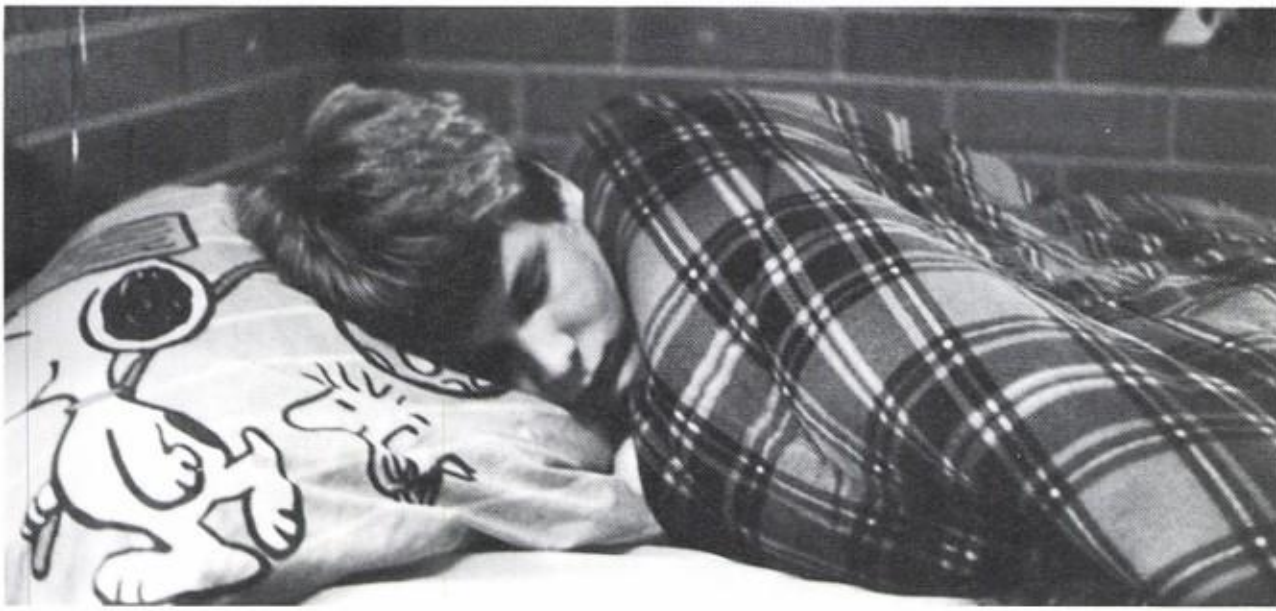

Rich Sadowski
Winning isn't everything
it's the only thing!

Michael Milosovich

The struggle for knowledge has a pleasure in it like that of wrestling with a fine woman.

— Lord Halifax

Todd Mostowy

I know you believe you understand what you think I said, but I'm not sure you realize what you heard is not what I meant.

Chris Kozlowski

If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone. And so hold on when there is nothing in you except the will which says to them: "Hold on!" If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of distance run yours is the earth and everything that's in it and which is more — you'll be a man, my son!

Michael Wudyka

To acquire knowledge is a gift God gave us all, but those who use this knowledge for the goodness of oneself, as well as others, makes life worth living.

Jerry Imlay

I live for my dreams and a pocket full of gold.

Eric Kozuchowski

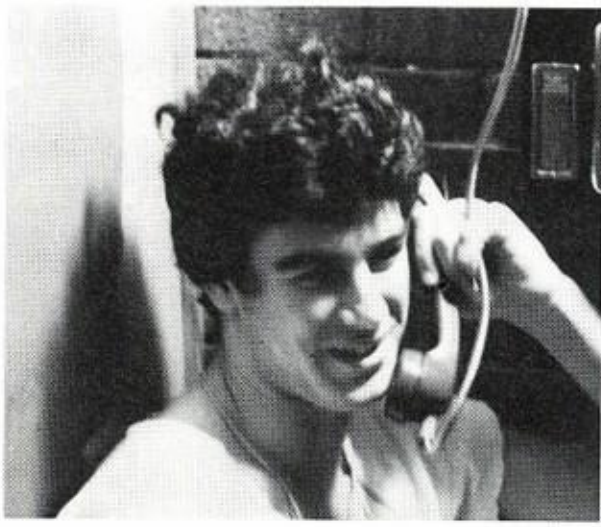

When you've seen beyond yourself then you may find, peace of mind is waiting there and the time will come when you see we're all one, and life flows on within you.

Rob Pietras

Life is a one way street, and you never have a chance to travel back over it. To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life.

— Robert Louis Stevenson

Pat Kramb

Within us lies the power to sieze the hour and live our dreams.

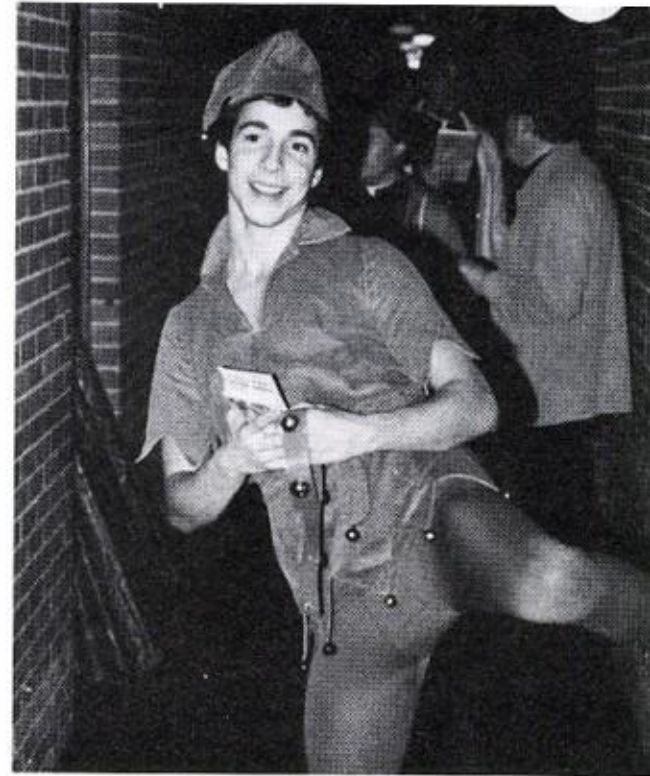

Paul Mazur

Whatever your deepest dreams, thoughts, or desires, seek to attain them. Set them as goals and work diligently at them. At times you must be willing to give more than what you have to reach them. If you acquire your goals set new, higher ones, and if you don't, try even harder. A man without a dream isn't a man at all. Never be afraid to dream and pursue your goals.

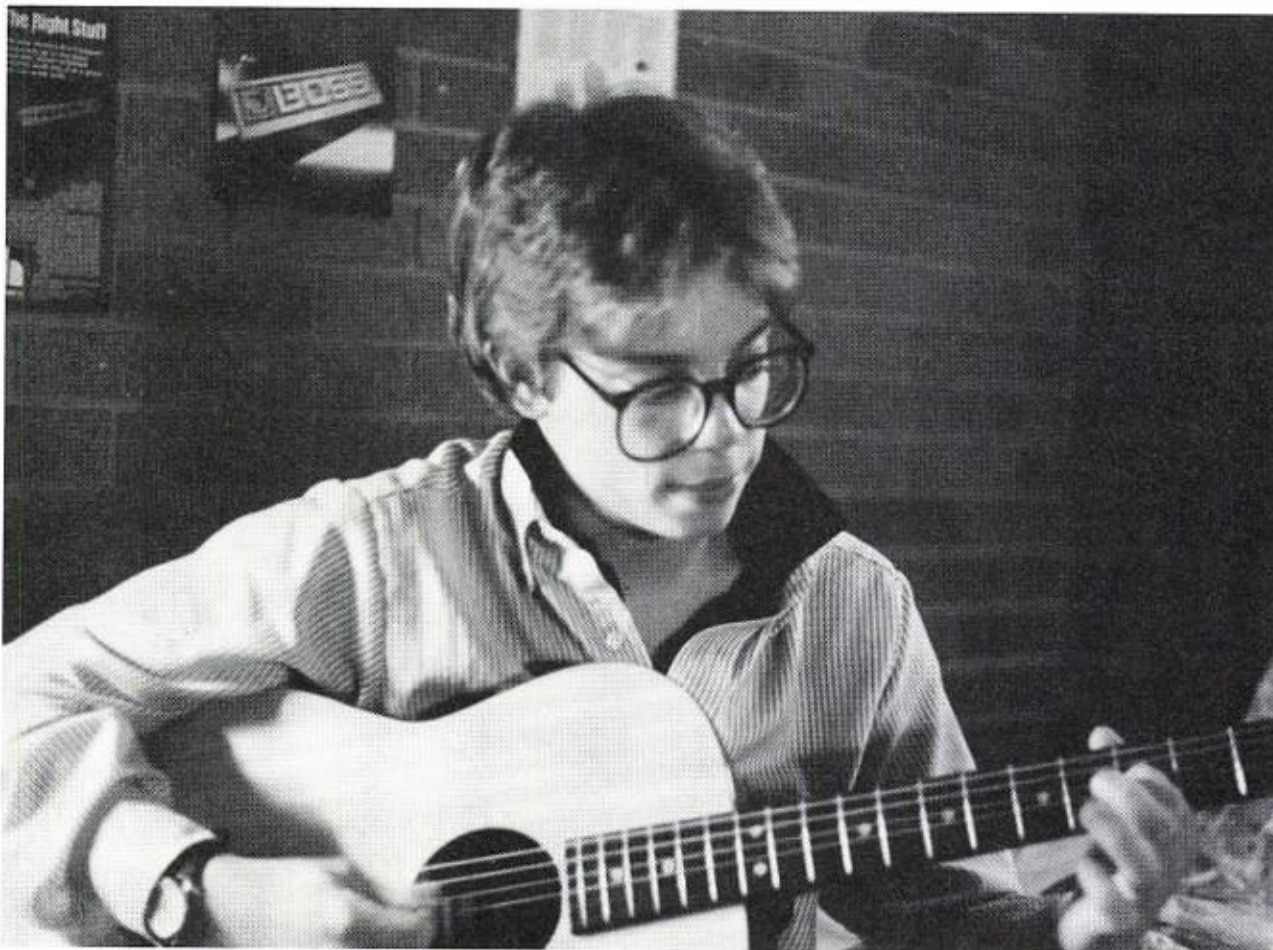

Stephen Mauris
Fate will not defeat me. I will grasp fate by the throat and crush it!
— Ludwig van
Beethoven

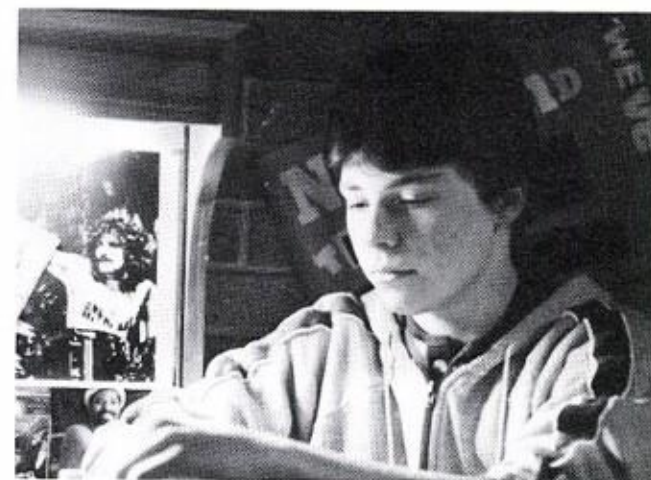

Don Repokis

Don't live for tomorrow
Live for the moment

Chris Rumel

My realization of eventual death makes life, and the pursuits of all its riches, worthwhile.

Vic Zitny

Dreams that have shattered may not have mattered. You've got to believe in yourself or no one will believe in you.

James Laich

I don't need you to worry for me cause I'm alright.
I don't want you to tell me it's time to come home.
I don't care what you say anymore, this is my life;
go ahead with your own life leave me alone.

— Billy Joel

Ken Temrowski

Be yourself: No one can ever tell you that you're doing it wrong.

John Sych

While it is well enough to leave footprints on the sands of time, it is even more important to make sure they point in a commendable direction.

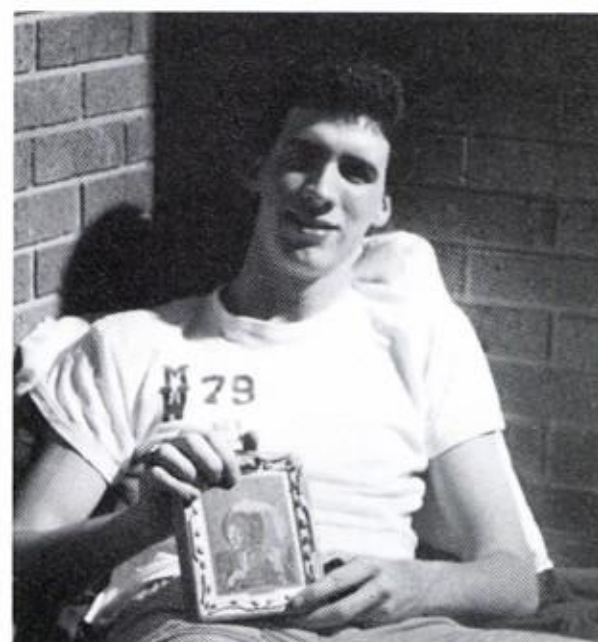

— James Branch Cabell

Dean Johnson

I'm finally out in the clear and I'm free
I've got dreams I'm living for
I'm moving on to where they'll never find me, rollin' on to anywhere.
I'll break away, yes I'm on my way;
leavin' today, yes I'm on my way,
This is my escape.

— S. Perry, N. Schon and J. Cain

Keith Pijanowski

Zeal without knowledge is like fire without a grate to contain it;

like a sword without a hilt to wield it by;
like a high-bred horse without a bridle to guide him.

It speaks without thinking, acts without planning,
seeks to accomplish

a good without the adoption of becoming means.

— Julius Bate

Michael Sullivan

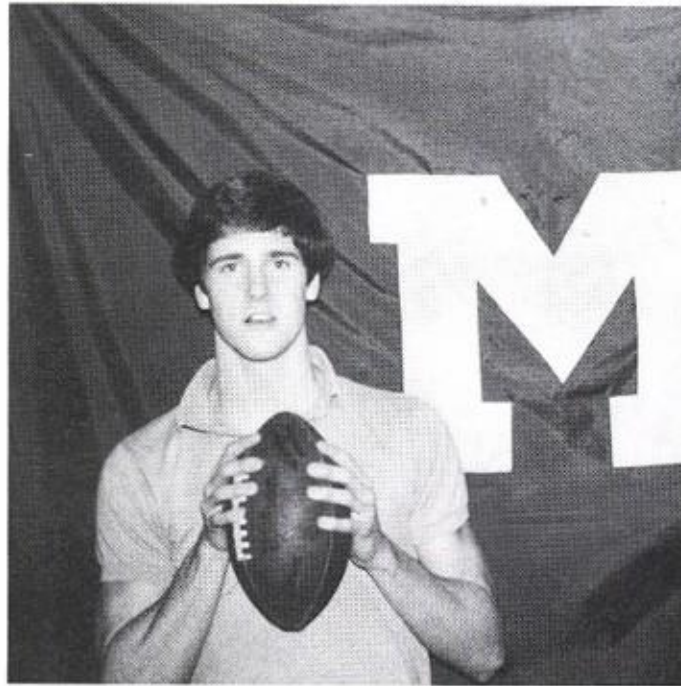

A little learning is a dangerous thing; drink deep, or taste not the Pierian spring! There shallow draughts intoxicate the brain, and drinking largely sobers us again.

— Alexander Pope

Michael Stechschulte
The essence of knowledge is having it to apply it; not having it, to confess your ignorance.

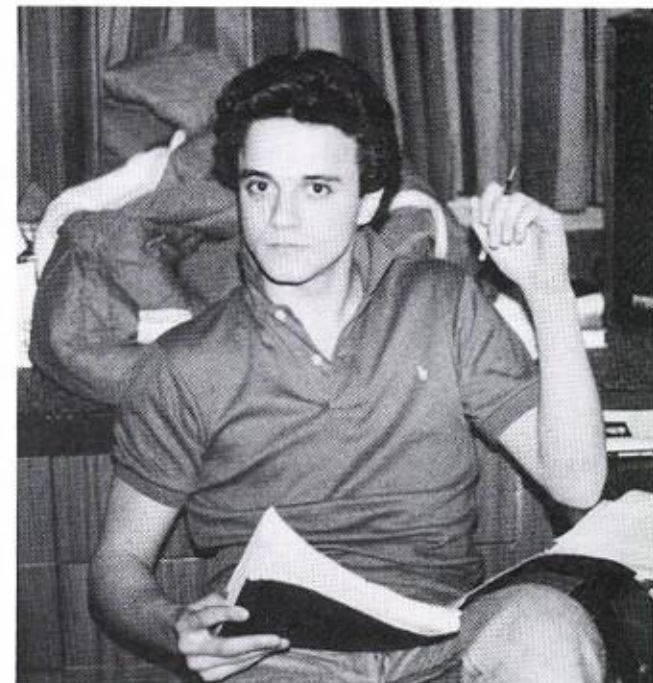

— Confucius

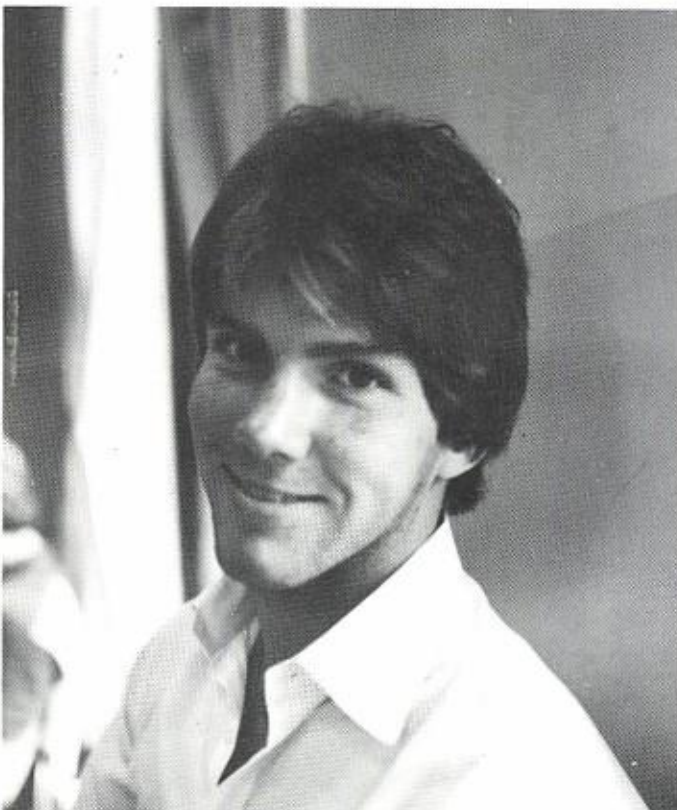

Paul Kasper
I'm free, and freedom's a taste of reality.

Paul Combellack
Looking back over the last four years, I realize that it was all worth it.

John Zebari
There are times when the best will do; so take heed in the ultimate.

John Frizzell
A man's stride betrays whether he has found his own way . . . I love to run swiftly, and though there are swamps and thick melancholy on earth, whoever has light feet runs even over mud and danced as on swept ice.

Thus spoke Zarathustra
— Friedrich Nietzsche

David Klebba
Don't try to be the best you can; try to be better than the best.

Kevin Clouse

I have learned this at least by experience: that if one advances in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

Thoreau

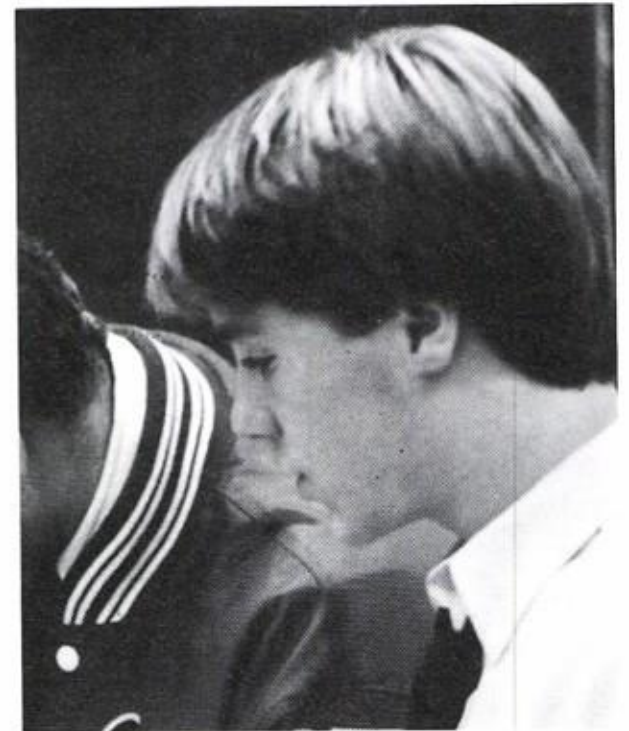

Brian Fagnini

Life is full of wonders; the greatest wonder of all is life itself.

Kevin Geraghty

Whatever the mind can conceive and believe, it can achieve.

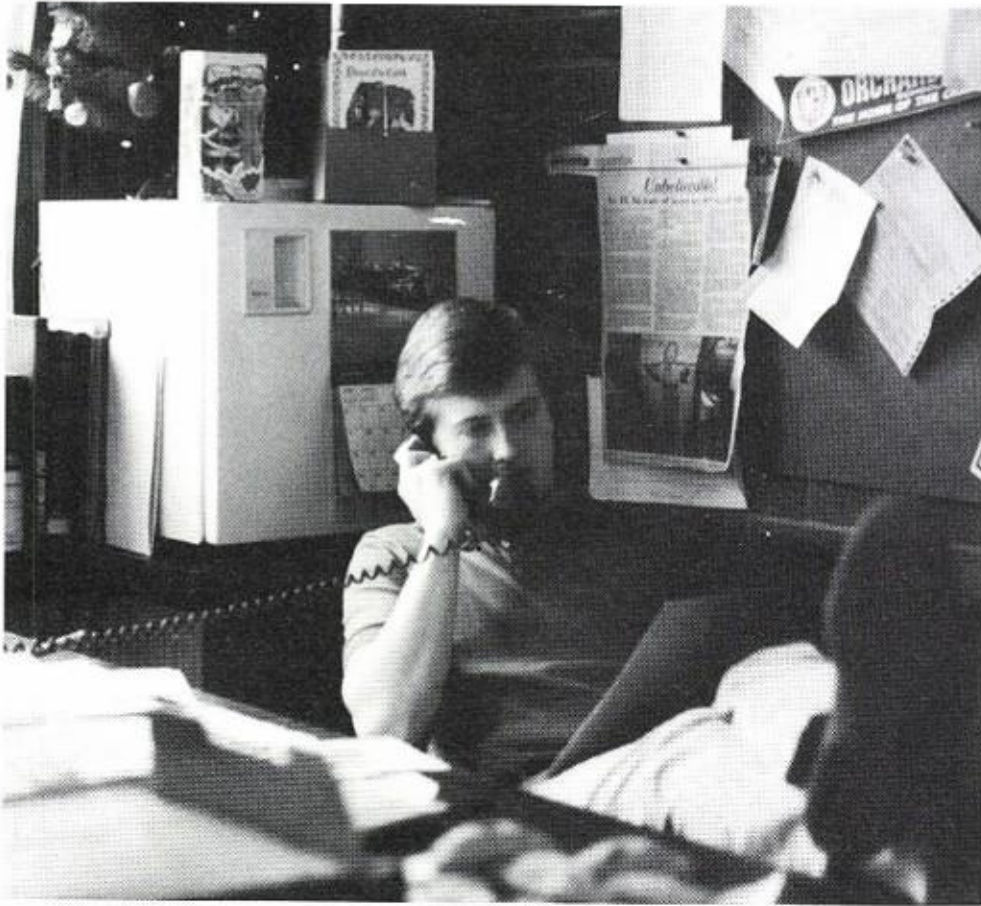

Mark Roman

Life is a continuity. All things are related. All beings are interdependent. They cannot exist without each other. They do not exist without each other.

— Paul Williams, Das Energi

Jon Zell

Desire nothing except desirelessness, hope for nothing except to rise above all hopes, want nothing and you will have everything.

— Avatar Meher Baba

Jim Zurcher

ANOTHER TOUGH YEAR

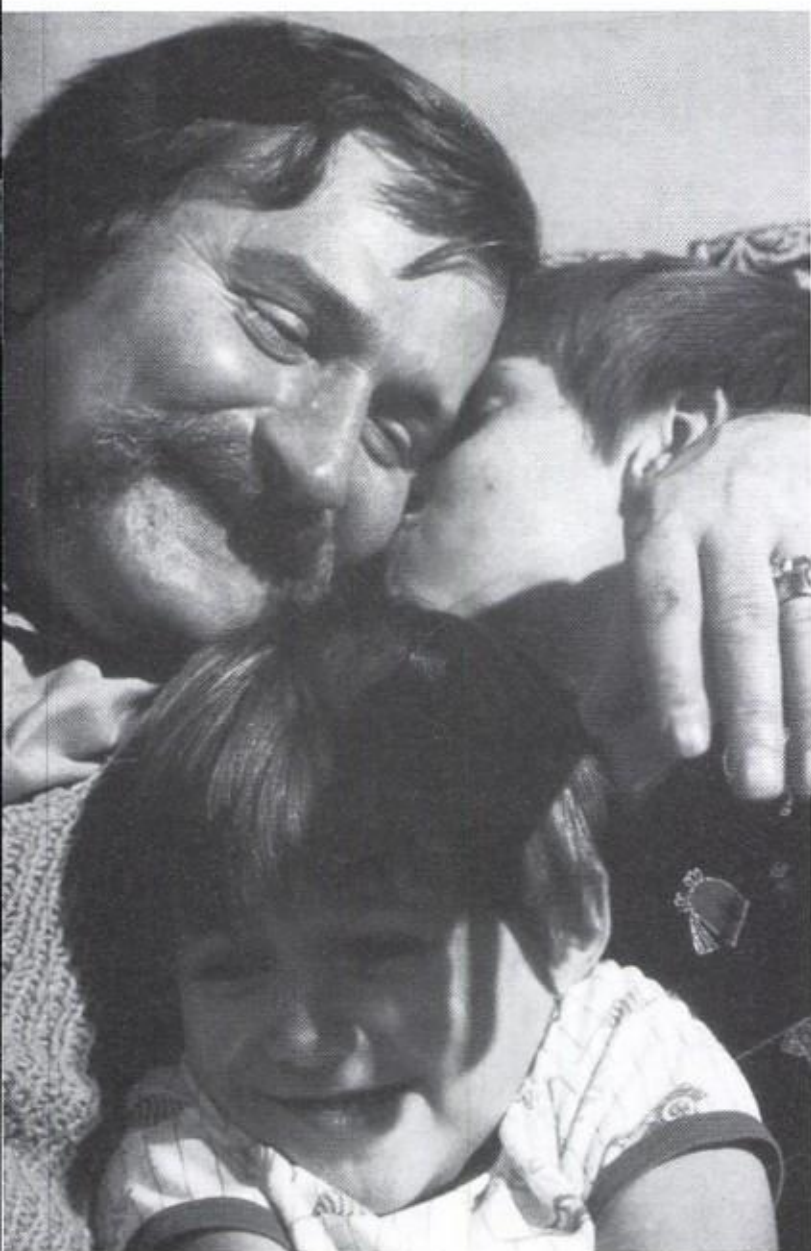

In a year of deepening economic distress, the most inescapable image was that of the jobless. But any year produces its quantum of sorrow and hope. In 1982 there were the Israeli assault in Lebanon and the first permanent artificial heart implant in Utah; the imperial pomp for a fallen Soviet leader in Moscow and the remembered glory of a fallen American princess in Monaco. There were, also, the passing of two Hollywood legends, the birth of a royal babe, and not least, the arrival of an egg-domed extraterrestrial whose message of gentle wisdom seemed, indeed, unearthly.

Upper right: Secretary of State George Shultz, who replaced Alexander Haig after his turbulent resignation. Middle right: Britians send off the royal Navy, sent to the Falklands, where they retook the islands after Argentina's surprise invasion. Lower left: Prime Minister Begin's leadership caused the alienation of both the communist bloc contries and the Western world, when Israel invaded Lebanon during that nation's bloody takeover. Below right: Premier Leonid Brezhnev, 75, a bearlike man who combined the Teddy's charm and the grizzly's power. Succeeding Nikita Khrushchev in 1964, he ruled the U.S.S.R. for 18 years. During that time, he preached detente while building Soviet nuclear strength; crushed Czechoslovakia under the Brezhnev Doctrine; and invaded Afghanistan. Brezhnev's death led to the succession of Uri Andropov.

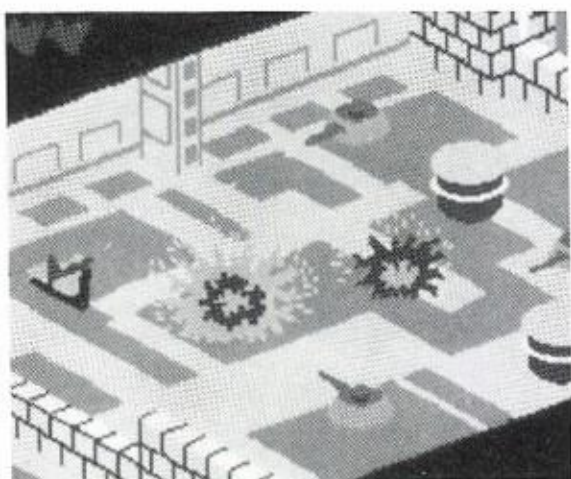

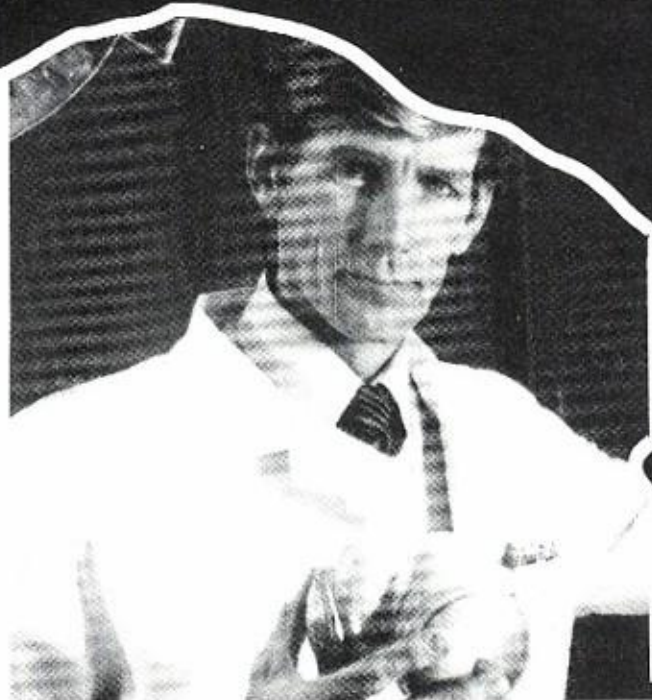

Upper left: Princess Diana gave the world its child in Prince William, the heir to the British throne and the darling of the English nation. Upper right: Michael Fagan, whose midnight chat with Queen Elizabeth led to the removal of the Palace security director, was acquitted of all charges. Middle right: President and Mrs. Reagan pay a historic visit to Pope John Paul II and the Vatican during their tour of many European nations.

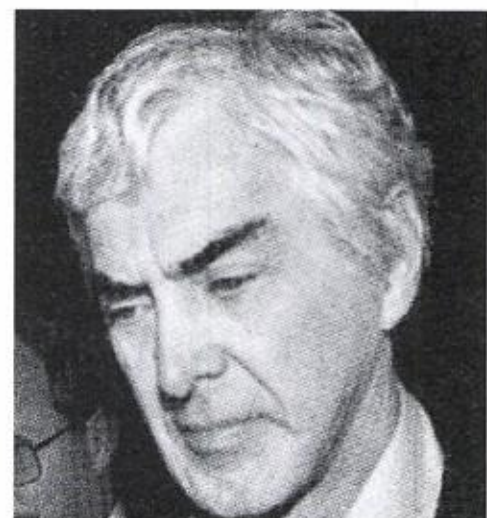

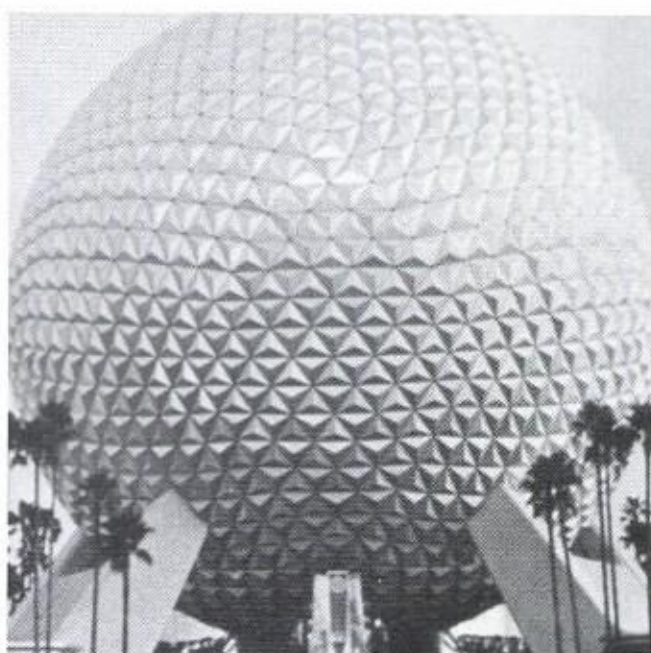

Lower left: Lech Walesa, after eleven months of detention as the leader of the outlawed Solidarity union, was released by the martial law government of Poland. Lower right: General Jaruzelski, whose martial law in Poland led to the internment of hundreds of political dissidents, addresses the Polish Parliament.

Top right: The 1982 World's Fair was held in Knoxville, Tennessee with displays from nations and corporations across the world. Right: Dustin Hoffman delighted America with his warm but humorous portrayal of Dorothy Michaels in "Tootsie." Center: "E.T." warmed the child in all of us, breaking all box-office records as this year's truly outstanding film. Middle and Lower left: Technology invaded our homes and hearts. Three million personal computers entered our homes and businesses and a daring man allowed the first artificial heart transplant. The video game industry paid the price of success: it glutted the market. Lower right: Unemployment was the big story of this year, as the jobless rate rose to over 10.8%, about 12 million workers.

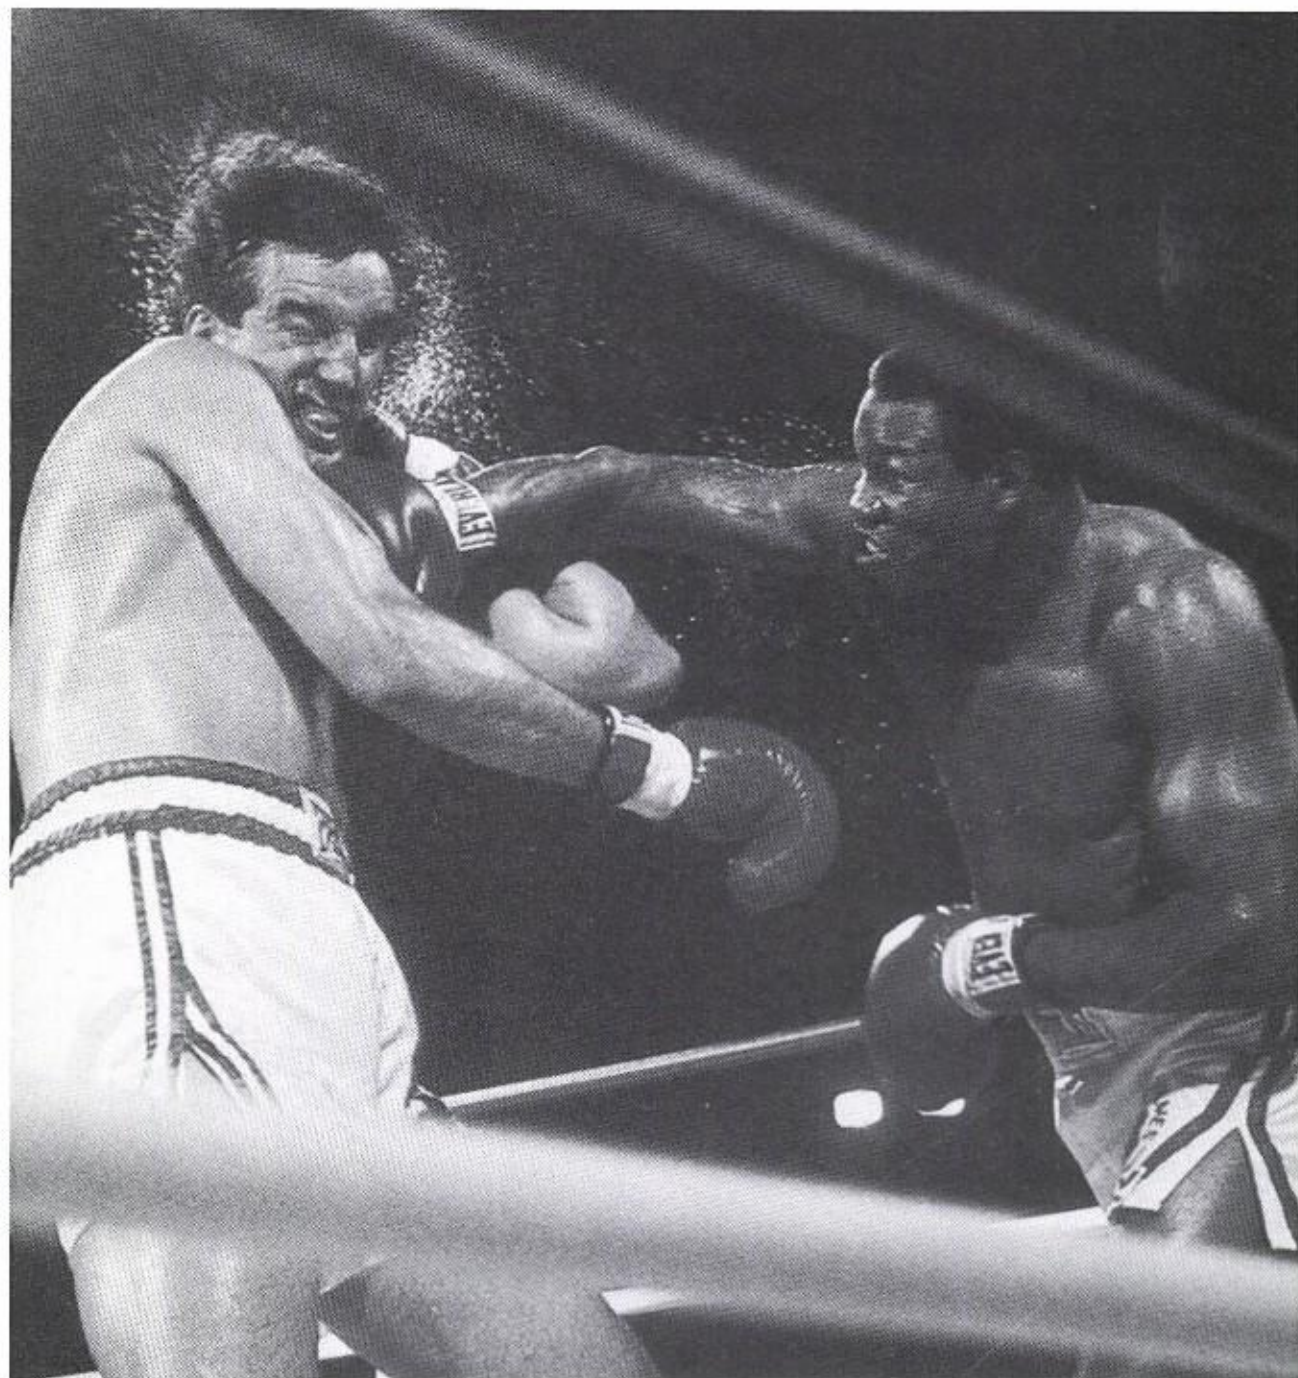

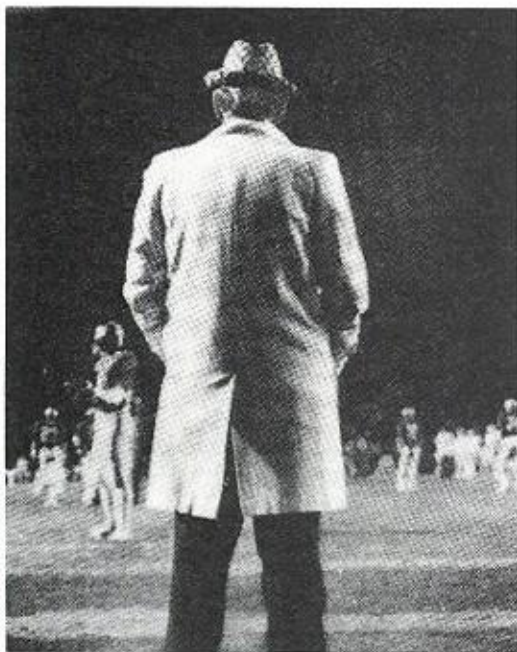

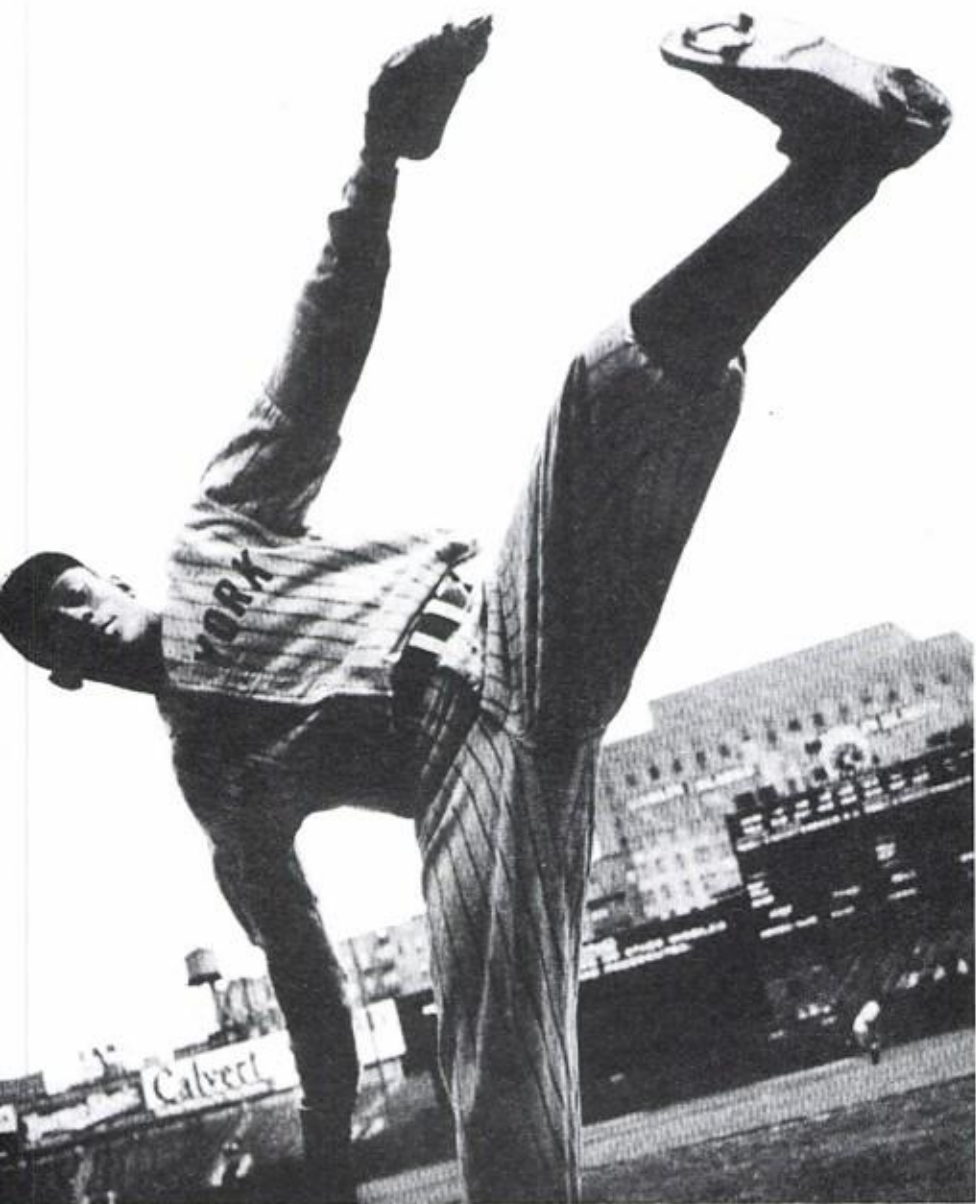

Upper left: Panic raced across the country when Tylenol and soon many other products were tampered with, causing an immediate freeze on the sale of all such products. Middle left: Moon Zappa, daughter of Frank, threw the world into a craze whose effect is still felt in many areas, fer sure. Center: Walt Disney's Epcot Center opened this year to rave reviews and great excitement as the late Walt Disney's fantasy is continued. Middle right: John DeLorean, whose car company plummeted to disaster, was arrested in attempts to sell millions in cocaine to save his dying dream. Lower left: In belated remembrance, the names of 57,939 American dead adorn the new Vietnam memorial. Lower right: Once downtown Detroit's main attraction, the 26 story J. L. Hudson department store closed after 71 years.

This year we saw the rise of a talented young hockey player, the destruction of a man in the heavyweight title bout, the abrupt halt of the nation's favorite pastime, and the unexpected resignation of college football's greatest coach. Top right: Wayne Gretzky, hockey star, fires another goal in an outstanding hockey career. Middle left: On September 21, the players of the National Football League went on strike for, among many things, television rights, and disappointed millions of fans. Lower left: College football's greatest coach, Bear Bryant, looks back on his outstanding career. Lower right: Larry Holmes lays a sound punch on Gerry Cooney for a thirteen round TKO.

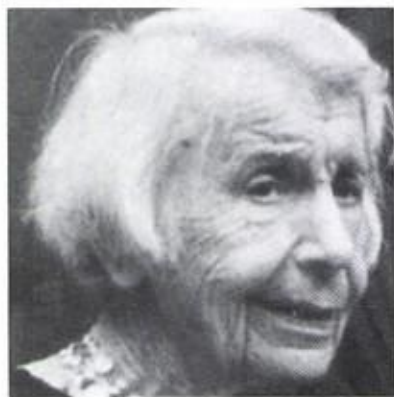

We lost many famous people this year, including a baseball legend, an American princess, a young comedian, and one of our beloved first ladies. Top left: Leroy "Satchel" Paige, 75, who may have been one of the greatest pitchers in baseball history, was admitted to the major leagues at age 42. Upper right: Henry Fonda, 77, screen star for decades who won his first Academy Award for this year's film, On Golden Pond. Top right: John Cheever, 70, novelist and winner of a Pulitzer Prize for his collection of short stories describing a suburban community known as "Cheever County." Middle left: Ingrid Bergman, 67, "Here's lookin' at you kid," said Bogart to her, and the world kept looking at the three-time Oscar winner all during her career and struggle with terminal cancer.

Center: Paul Lynde, master of ad lib and one-liners, died of a heart attack after a lengthy career in television. Lower middle: John Belushi, 33, whose tragic death of a drug overdose ended a blossoming career as a comedian and actor. Middle right: Grace Kelly, 52, whose poise and beauty led her through a Hollywood career and fairytale marriage to Monaco's Prince Ranier. Bottom left: Pierre Mendes France, 75, prime minister who led France out of its war in Indochina, then was turned out of office six months later for his North African policy. Bottom center: Anna Freud, 86, daughter of Sigmund Freud, and a psychoanalyst who worked mainly with children. Bottom right: Bess Truman, 97, the most retiring of recent First Ladies, who won many votes for her adoring husband, Harry.

Valentine's Day Sweetheart Dance

Valentines Day

The annual St. Mary's Sweetheart Dance came off as a "nice, quiet, sociable evening." It was full of energy and enthusiasm. The young men and women paired off as they danced to the sounds of "The Electrifying Pan Roman." It was truly a night to be remembered.

EAGLET FOOTBALL SAILS OVER STORMS

The Eaglet Varsity football team had successful 6-3 year season record. Taking, for the 3rd year in a row, part of the league title. The Eaglets had 7 players named to 1st team All-League and 3 were given All-Catholic honors. The Eaglets look very strong for next year by only graduating 6 starting seniors.

C. C. TAKES REGIONALS

CROSS COUNTRY

After a shakey start, this year's cross country team began their first-place drive on the way to the state finals. They took a respectable tenth place in the West Bloomfield invitational, and fourth place in the Holly Invitational. From there they took first place in the Shrine and Metro Invitionals, Sectionals, the Catholic meet, then first place in Regionals, but placed ninth at state finals.

The Orchard Lake runners will lose six men when Paul Mazur, John Frizzell, Mark Roman, Stephen Allsteadt, Dave Klebba and Jim Laich graduate this year. However, they have the honor of having seven All-League members, who are Nick Stration, Steve Allsteadt, Manuel Tapia, John Frizzell, Tom Walsh, and Dave Klebba. There are also five All-Catholic runners: John Frizzell, Tom Walsh, Manuel Tapia, Dave Mally, and Dennis Topolinski. John Frizzell and Manuel Tapia were selected All-City. John Frizzell, who placed nineteenth in the state meet, was named Most Valuable Runner. The Coaches' Award for the Hardest Worker went to Paul Mazur.
